Pañpuri unmasks new Signature Collection Organic Wash Bars with Certified Organic Ingredients

At Pañpuri, continuously creating a new art of luxury living comes naturally. A conscious kind of luxury that pays keen attention to deluxe details without compromising the environment is a natural practice for the award-winning brand. For nearly a decade now, Pañpuri had strived to preserve nature's essence in its purest form by making the otherwise-ordinary experiences extraordinary with offerings that echo the advantages of organic curiosities. This principle has been at the core of Pañpuri's long-standing advocacy for natural and organic pampering products and services.

Pañpuri's Signature Collection Organic Wash Bars are created based on the belief that the body, the mind and the environment are intricately knotted—that the well-being of our body is directly affected by the well-being of our consciousness and our surroundings. Pañpuri's commitment to using pure and natural ingredients in all its formulations without hurting the ecosystem underscores its belief that enjoying the finer things in life does not have to come at Mother Nature's expense.

Inspired by the Oriental curios and objets d'art of a bygone era, Pañpuri's Signature Collection Organic Wash Bars take great pride on the best botanical ingredients around the world and are formulated from a wide range of ancient plants, roots, herbs and flowers. Each gentle, organic wash bar caresses the skin with creamy lather, rich moisture and a sublime scent that leaves the skin freshly cleansed and supremely soft. Each bar is meticulously hand-wrapped to ensure that the original quality of the wash bar is preserved, as well as the purity and essence of the essential oils and the certified organic ingredients.

Each bar is delicately crafted from the essences of enchanting flowers, seductive spices and healing woods of natural paradises. The collection is infused with the rarest, purest scents from Thailand, Australia and Egypt, along with the finest, eco-friendly ingredients around the world, certified at least 85% organic by the Soil Association (UK).

Siamese Water Uplifting Organic Wash Bar

The Siamese Water Uplifting Organic Wash Bar is formulated with an uplifting blend of sensual jasmine, exotic ylang-ylang and refreshing peppermint oils. Native to Asia and Northern India, Jasmine is one of the most significant flowers in the tropical region. Jasmine is deeply rooted in Thai and Indonesian traditions, symbolizing purity, respect and well-wishes while being renowned for its ability to uplift and relax moods. The refreshing feel of peppermint helps to overcome stress and depression, hence; it is used to overcome certain anxiety disorders; while ylang-ylang is known as an effective treatment for those undergoing nervous breakdown and acute stress.

Indochine Soothing Organic Wash Bar

Formulated with a blend of six healing oils accented by comforting lemongrass, sweet mandarin and relaxing bergamot oils, the Indochine Soothing Organic Wash Bar is a splendid treat for the skin. Arguably the most prominent ingredient in Thai cuisine because of its sharp, fresh, lemony aroma, lemongrass has been traditionally used on skin complaints because of its soothing and antiseptic properties. Mandarin promotes growth of new cells and tissues, thereby helping faster healing of wounds and other wear & tears; while certain components of bergamot oils are anti-biotic and disinfectant in nature, inhibiting growth of germs, virus and fungi.

Grand Manchou Reviving Organic Wash Bar

The Grand Manchou Reviving Organic Wash Bar contains refreshing grapefruit, earthy rosewood and uplifting Australian eucalyptus oils. Grapefruit protects the body from all harms done by oxidants, like aging, degeneration of tissues, loss of vision and hearing, mental and physical sluggishness and even nervous disorders. The mildly spicy, floral and sweet smell of rosewood can serve as an ideal natural deodorant, driving away bad odor, making one feel refreshed and safe from bacterial infections; while eucalyptus removes exhaustion and mental sluggishness and rejuvenates the spirits of the sick. Its aroma is also effective in treating ailments caused by stress.

The Distant Shores Balancing Organic Wash Bar

A blend of refreshing geranium, penetrating eucalyptus and relaxing certified organic lavender oils, the Distant Shores Balancing Organic Wash Bar offers balance and harmony of the senses. Geranium helps skin scars and spots to fade and vanish while facilitating blood circulation just below the surface of skin, making distribution of melanin uniform. Eucalyptus essential oil is a good antiseptic owing to its germicidal properties; while the certified organic lavender's calming aroma helps in treating migraines, headaches, anxiety, depression, nervous tension and emotional stress.

The Velvet Blossoms Sensual Organic Wash Bar

The Velvet Blossoms Sensual Organic Wash Bar brings a romantic awakening with its blend of sensuous blend of exotic ylang-ylang, relaxing certified organic lavender and alluring Egyptian geranium. Native to the Philippines and grown all over tropical Asia, ylang ylang is known as "the queen of tropical flowers" and is treasured for its anti-depressant and stimulant properties as it soothes nervousness, increases sensuality, and relieves skin irritation. Meanwhile, properties of geranium enable it to regulate sebum production and being a mild anti bacterial, it aids eliminating body odor. Additionally, the certified organic lavender's antiseptic and antifungal properties can treat various skin disorders such as acne, wrinkles, psoriasis, and other inflammations.

Essential oils, extracted from various healing plants and herbs, were once used by ancient cultures including Ancient Egypt for the treatment of illnesses. Containing enormously valuable medicinal healing properties, essential oils provide dramatic results when used therapeutically, and when utilized as cleansers and moisturizers for the skin, it brings pure pampering heaven.
